

Faculty of Medicine / The Ottawa Hospital

» Chair/Head, Department of Anesthesiology and Pain Medicine

Are you looking for a rewarding position that combines patient care, teaching leadership and research? Do you want to be a part of a dynamic, innovative, and growing department that is recognized nationally and internationally for its strong undergraduate and postgraduate education programs, research and initiatives designed to enhance quality and safety?

The University of Ottawa Faculty of Medicine (FoM), and The Ottawa Hospital (TOH) invites applications and nominations for the above position.

The University of Ottawa is Canada's largest bilingual institution of higher learning and research. The FoM offers a wide range of competitive educational and research programs in a dynamic learning environment with state of the art facilities. The faculty is recognized as a national leader in medical education and ranks among the top faculties of medicine worldwide for research intensity and impact.

TOH is one of the largest Academic Health Science Centres in Canada, affiliated with the University of Ottawa and The Ottawa Hospital Research Institute. TOH is committed to meeting the needs of the 1.2 million residents it serves in Ottawa, Eastern Ontario, Western Quebec, and Nunavut and is anchored by values of compassion, quality, teamwork, and respect. TOH's Vision is: To provide each patient with the world class care, exceptional service, and compassion we would want for our loved ones.

The Department of Anesthesiology has Canada's third-largest anesthesiology residency program and a history of excellence in medical education, clinical care, and research. This includes the first Competence By Design anesthesiology residency program in Canada, an extensive simulation-based curriculum, and Fellowship programs in thirteen sub specialty areas. Clinician-researchers in our department have active programs that are currently supported by a variety of competitive sources, including federal grants from the CIHR and NFRF. The Department is composed of an outstanding group of clinicians dedicated to providing exceptional care, innovative medical education, and leading-edge research.

Location and Compensation:

Time allocation: 4 days per week. Consideration will be given to flexible work arrangements to allow the demands of the service to be spread over the entire week.

Compensation will be aligned with FoM and TOH guidelines for administrative stipends. The duration of the appointment would be up to 5 years, renewable once.

» All qualified candidates are invited to apply; however, preference will be given to Canadian citizens and permanent residents. When submitting your application, please indicate your current status. The University of Ottawa is an equal opportunity employer. We strongly encourage applications from women, Indigenous peoples, persons with disabilities and members of visible minorities. If you are invited to continue the selection process, please notify us of any particular adaptive measures you might require by contacting the Office of the Associate Vice-President, Faculty Affairs at 613-562-5958. Any information you send us will be handled respectfully and in complete confidence. The University of Ottawa is proud of its 160-year tradition of bilingualism. Through its Official Languages and Bilingualism Institute, the University provides training to staff members and to their spouses in their second official language. At the time of tenure, professors are expected to have the ability to function in a bilingual setting.

The successful candidate will lead the Department of Anesthesiology and Pain Medicine with its:

- National and international leaders in clinical care, education and research;
- Affiliation with other healthcare facilities such as CHEO, University of Ottawa Heart Institute and Hopital Montfort;
- Extensive undergraduate, postgraduate and fellowship training programs as well as its commitment to graduate and postdoctoral training;
- Commitment to safety, quality, system improvement, equity, diversity and inclusion

You meet the following qualifications:

- A seasoned leader who can direct the effective delivery of clinical services, academic performance and research in alignment with the mission, vision, values, policies and objectives of the FoM and TOH;
- Demonstrated experience in engaging teams and leading change;
- Excellent administrative and organizational skills;
- Experience with promotion as well as sustaining innovation and collaborative partnerships;
- An outstanding record in patient care, teaching, academic leadership and research;
- An accomplished clinician who is in good standing with the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada or equivalent;
- A university rank of Associate or Full Professor;
- Eligible for licensure in Ontario; and
- Fluency in English or French (the university's official languages) and a minimum of a passive knowledge of the other is required.

You are invited to forward a letter of intent and CV by October 8, 2023 to:
