EXCELLENCE

Gold Medal Award

The Gold Medal is the highest award of the Canadian Anesthesiologists’ Society. It is a personal award consisting of an inscribed gold medal given in recognition of excellence in matters related to anesthesia.

Eligibility

The medal may be awarded to any individual, ordinarily a Canadian:

• who has made a significant contribution to anesthesia in Canada through teaching, research, professional practice, or related administration and personal leadership;

• who may be active or retired from his/her field of interest.

Nomination and Selection

• Refer to the “Nomination and Selection” information.

Research Recognition Award

The Research Recognition Award will be presented by the Canadian Anesthesiologists’ Society to honour a senior investigator who has made major contributions to anesthesia research in Canada.

Nomination and Selection

• Nominations, consisting of letters from at least three sponsors, plus one copy of the current curriculum vitae of the nominee must be submitted by the deadline to the attention of the Chair of the CAS Research Advisory Committee.

• Nominations shall be referred to the Research Advisory Committee for consideration.

Attention:

Chair of the CAS Research Advisory Committee

Nomination and Selection information
